Notice

- 2.6 Notice of every general meeting shall be given to the fellowship and membership of the College either in writing or, where the individual to whom notice is given has notified the College Executive Board of an address to be used for the purpose of electronic communications, by way of an electronic communication; alternatively, the College Executive Board may (subject to notifying the fellowship and membership of the College of the presence of the notice (and that the fact that it relates to a general meeting, together with details of the place, date and time of the meeting) on the College website) give notice of every general meeting by means of a notice on the College website.
