

Regional Advisors

Role Specification

Background

As a Fellow or Member of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, you are already part of a growing community of over 15,000 healthcare professionals, who are passionate about patient care, and are leading and influencing the future of our profession.

Our influential network of Regional Advisors are ambassadors who help promote the unique values of our College, and are able to explain who we are, what we stand for and what we do to a new generation of clinicians across the UK and Ireland.

Working as part of an inter-disciplinary team, and with direction and support from the College, the Regional Advisor will raise the profile and awareness of the College and endorse the benefits of membership in their locality. They will also develop a local network of College members who can work together and support each other in promoting College activities.

This role should be discussed with the relevant Clinical director and should be discussed in annual appraisals.

Role and Responsibilities

- Act as a local College ambassador by maintaining regular contact with local members through various communication channels e.g. meetings/ events, e-mails, social media etc.
- Actively identify and recruit new Members to the College, including new consultants in your region and encourage applications for Fellowship, acting as sponsor where appropriate
- Identify opportunities to raise the profile of the College in your region, and opportunities to support local or regional education/teaching programmes
- On occasion, coordinate and deliver or attend professional events and functions to represent and promote the College
- Promote and publicise the range of relevant examinations offered by the College, encouraging local clinicians to apply through the College to sit these examinations
- Promote and publicise the range of education, activities, services and facilities offered by the College
- Advise the College on local issues and developments
- Provide input and feedback for College consultations
- Participate in a minimum of two Advisor meetings per annum
- Provide advice, guidance, support and networking opportunities to local College membership
- Review and comment on an ad hoc basis Specialist and Speciality Doctor (SAS and Locally Employed) job descriptions and job description review forms. On occasion may be asked to represent the College on Appointment Committees

Person Specification

Our Regional Advisors will be Fellows or Members of the College in good standing. They will have a proven commitment to education, training and/or examinations and be able to demonstrate initiative, enthusiasm and professional expertise towards this important representative role.

Those successful in securing the role of Regional Advisor may not perform any similar promotional or governance role for any other medical or surgical Royal College. You must declare memberships of, or affiliations with, all other Colleges.

Eligibility

This role is suitable for Substantive Consultants, SAS Doctors and Dentists or individuals working at a similar level (equivalent to the new Speciality Doctor contract in England Wales and Northern Ireland). The current post if not substantive must have a duration of over 12 months and a minimum of 6 months remaining in their term. You may not be eligible if you are in a locum position.

If you are unsure if you would be eligible for this role, please contact membertnetworks@rcpsg.ac.uk in advance of applying.

Communication and Reporting

The Regional Advisors will be accountable to College Council through the Honorary Secretary. The Regional Advisors will work closely with, and be supported by, Office Bearers and College staff, led by the Membership & Engagement Team.

Term

The term of office will be 3 years from date of appointment, with the option to extend for a further 3 years if both parties are happy to proceed.

Remuneration

The post of Regional Advisor is voluntary although all reasonable and pre-agreed expenses associated with the role will be reimbursed by the College in line with our normal policies and procedures.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

We are keen that our Regional Advisors are as diverse as possible, and we hope to attract applications from underrepresented groups, including Black, Asian and minority ethnic (BAME) people; people with disabilities; LGBT+ people; people with gender diverse identities; and people from lower socio-economic backgrounds.
