

Membership Support Officer
Salary Scale – Grade 3 - £23,466.30 - 35 hours per week

The College supports hybrid working practices including working from home, however, regular attendance at meetings in Glasgow city centre would also be a requirement of the role.

About Us

We are looking for a Membership Support Officer to join our Membership and Engagement team.

The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow is a worldwide community of inspiring health professionals working together to advance the profession and improve patient care. Together we're a force for good, determined to make a positive difference, and passionate about speaking up for the profession.

Our community is made up of the expertise and experience of our 15,000+ outstanding, hardworking members, supported by over 100 College staff.

With care and compassion at our core, our work is guided by our values of inclusivity, integrity, community, innovation, and inspiring, and we are committed to living these values and behaviours through the way we work and interact with each other. The College promotes an agile, flexible workforce and while this is a full-time post, applications from individuals seeking part-time, job-share, or flexible working arrangements are welcome.

The Role

Reporting to the Membership Support Manager, the Membership Support Officer will communicate with members to deliver a first-class, high value experience through a range of advice and support services, by supporting new members with the joining process, understanding individual member needs, signposting relevant products and services and effectively supporting members who are considering leaving.

S/he will be a highly effective communicator and knowledgeable on the career pathways and membership benefits for clinicians at all career stages.

S/he will also have a close working relationship with the other teams across the College providing seamless and effortless customer service for members and prospective members.
