General		This is a well-considered document that addresses an area of significant concern and potential health gain
General		NICE has asked specifically whether the scope could be changed to better promote equality of opportunity relating to age, disability, gender, gender identity, ethnicity, religion and belief, sexual orientation or socio-economic status. We feel that the scope does not need to be changed but the guideline will need to address that challenges raised in 3 (c) of the document

Stakeholder Comments

General		We suggest that the advice sheet referenced below may be useful to include in the reference list, as the scope mentions oral cancer, and this document goes into detail regarding the role of the dental practitioner Speight P, Warnakulasuriya S, Ogden G (Editors) Early detection and prevention of oral cancer: a management strategy for dental practice.
