Examination
It is recommended that you read the Examination Regulations prior to sitting the examination. The Regulations provide information on the format of the examination and the syllabus. You will also find sample questions on our website along with Candidate Guidance notes for this examination. These can be accessed on the College website: Regulations, candidate guidance & sample questions

Results
Results are normally sent out by post within six weeks of the examination. Results will also be posted on the College website. You will need your Person ID Number to access these. Please note that results will not be provided by telephone under any circumstances.

Identification
Photographic identification with a signature (e.g. passport) must be presented at the examination venue.

Visa
If you require a visa to travel to an examination centre, obtaining this is the responsibility of each candidate and is outwith the jurisdiction of the College.

Enquiries
Should you have any questions please contact the College: mfds@rcpsg.ac.uk

Please note that queries regarding the examination (except on the day of the examination) should be directed to the College and not the examination centre, as they will be unable to advise appropriately.
