

2011 Bruntsfield

Fergus Hewat match 2011 played at the Bruntsfield Links Edinburgh
After two years without a win there was anxiety, yet an air of expectation as the chosen few, waved off from the steps of the Glasgow Club by one of our stalwarts Hugh Brebner, headed for Bruntsfield GC. After a severe winter and the briefest glimpses of sunshine in April we were suitably attired for anything that mother nature could present us with. We were not disappointed , experiencing four seasons in a day- this including thunder and lightning - enough to necessitate our leaving the course. For some this added great confusion. To misquote Morecambe and Wise “ the holes were all played - but not in the right order.” In spite of all of the above Glasgow triumphed 6 games to 2 .

As always the game was played in the best of spirits, the course was in good condition and the excellent hospitality was appreciated by all. Like the late Frank Sinatra we persuaded Stuart Mc Alpine to play “ one more time.” He some what reluctantly agree but it is with pleasure that I record on this final appearance for the team he triumphed. Feeling rather pleased with ourselves we returned to Glasgow knowing of the pleasure our absent captain, Douglas Briggs would get from his team’s victory.
