

Academy of Medical Royal Colleges and Faculties in Scotland

PROFESSIONALISM & EXCELLENCE IN SCOTTISH HEALTHCARE: OUR FUTURE

Second National Symposium, organized by the Scottish Academy Trainee Doctors' Group

Friday, 27th March 2015

Hosted at and sponsored by the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh
PROGRAMME

09.15	Registration and Coffee
09.45	Welcome: Professionalism and Excellence in Scottish Healthcare: Our Future	Ian Ritchie (President RCSEd, Chair Scottish Academy of Royal Colleges)
09.50	Introductory address: Professionalism and Excellence in Scottish Healthcare: Our Future	Shona Robison MSP, Cabinet Secretary for Health, Wellbeing and Sports
10.10	Non-technical skills for clinicians	Craig McIlhenny Faculty of Surgical Trainers, RCSEd
10.40	Training (and maintaining) tomorrow's trainers	Vicki Osgood GMC
11.10	Physician Heal Thyself: Improving the NHS working Environment and doctors mental health	Claire Gerada Practitioner Health Programme
11.40	Coffee Break
12.00	"Quality Improvement - Me? Really?" - what can frontline staff do to improve care?	Brian Robson HIS
12.30	Better Training, Better Care – the HEE experience	Patrick Mitchell HEE
13.00	Lunch with poster viewing. Breakout session on "Mentoring - a beginners guide, the FMLM experience" 13:25-13:55
13.55	From Mid Staffs to the NHS Grampian reports, what should we be doing differently?	Craig White, Health Quality and Strategy, Scottish Government
14.25	Leadership for Excellence: The Scottish Clinical Leadership Fellowship Scheme: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Taking Charge of your Rota: Leadership for Improvement - Is 7 the Magic Number: Leadership for Efficiency 	John Colvin, Senior Medical Officer Scottish Government Health Workforce Clinical Leadership Fellows
15.15	Coffee Break

15.30	"Mind the gap" – the inherent dangers at the primary /secondary care interface (and how to tackle them).	Carey Lunan, Executive Officer for Interface Working RCGP Scotland
16:00	More than DNA - CPR – starting end of life conversations.	TBC
16.30	The "Shape" of things to come: Will the implementation of the Shape of Training Review influence the configuration of future healthcare services?	Ian Findlay, Chair, Shape of Training Implementation
17.00-17:10	SUMMARY AND CLOSE followed by Trainee's forum	Rachael Swann, Scottish Academy Trainee Doctors Group

Booking via : <http://www.rcsed.ac.uk/education/courses-and-events/coursedetails.aspx?diaryId=1402> or e-mail education@rcsed.ac.uk

Call for abstracts closes 31 Jan 2015

Approved for CPD